Una semana de lluvia: Una aventura de Plinio (Literatura Rey Lear nº 49) (Spanish Edition) Francisco García Pavón

A finales de agosto, cuando Tomelloso se dispone a celebrar sus fiestas patronales, una intensa lluvia se instala en el pueblo y desluce las verbenas y festejos. Guarecidos bajo el techo del casino y el bar de la Rocío, Plinio y don Lotario salen del aburrimiento para investigar la aparición de varias chicas embarazadas que se han quitado la vida. Mientras los vecinos pierden los nervios con el mal tiempo y se lanzan locamente a la búsqueda del preñador desconocido, el jefe de la Guardia Municipal y su ayudante siguen las escasas pistas abiertas, sorteando los charcos que cortan su camino e intentando apaciguar los ánimos vecinales. Una semana de lluvia, novela publicada después de Las hermanas coloradas, con la que García Pavón obtuvo el Premio Nadal, mezcla la intriga policíaca con un retrato social de la España de los años setenta mediante personajes como Coño Venegas, el cantor protesta conocido como el Gicondo o don Sebastián, apuesto y adinerado, que comparte su vida con tres mujeres extrañamente bien avenidas.
