Germany, Poland, Czech Republic: Tripoint Dresden - Wroclaw - Prague 1:150,000 Touring Map FB

Germany's popular holiday area on this detailed road map at 1:150,000 from Freytag and Berndt covers territories of SE Saxony, western Poland and NW Czech Republic around the trijunction near Zittau. Thanks to the removal of the border check points, the area is very easy to travel.

Relief is portrayed by hill-shading without distracting from other detail. Good map scale and colouring make minor local roads and motorway junctions stand out very clearly. Road information includes intermediate driving distances, toll routes, scenic roads and tourist routes, steep gradients, caravan traffic restrictions, seasonal closures on mountain roads, etc. Railways, cable cars, ferries and airfields are also shown. Selected cycle routes and long distance hiking trails are included.

Picturesque towns are highlighted and 10 selected places of interest are prominently marked and briefly described in the index booklet attached to the map cover. The booklet also provides street plans of main towns in the region.

Symbols mark various landmarks, places of interest and facilities, e.g. selected hotels, campsites, historical and architectural sites, etc. Latitude and longitude lines are drawn at 10° intervals. Map legend and the descriptions include English, hard cover.
