A Steamy tale of Sex Lies and Deceit As a young child Julie had a dream to be a barrister, a dream that would take her into the world of the finest people and a world that righted wrongs. Justice would be done by words, not with violence. Her passion was undoubtedly learning, another and more sinister passion existed, she was addicted to sex. From her days at University when she used to flirt and tease she realised that men could be manipulated. Seduction was her game, she was good, she was the best. Even her friend Samantha was envious. Julie Samuels life changes dramatically during a court case... she found two things she'd never thought existed... One bought her happiness the other deceit, lies and conflict.
