A Pastor in Every Pew: Equipping Laity for Pastoral Care Leroy Howe

Pastoral care is the work of every Christian, not just the clergy. In this comprehensive Christian training manual for church leaders, author Leroy Howe presents a program that will help local church leaders empower and equip their congregations in developing pastoral care ministries. A Pastor in Every Pew will help program participants develop the skills they need to render effective Christian care in a variety of situations while establishing person-to-person care-giving that focuses on

- Building trust
- Effective listening
- Dealing with feelings
- Prayer
- Uses of Scripture
