Cuenta regresiva (Spanish Edition) A.E. Quintero

Cuenta regresiva nos muestra a un poeta de una fina sensibilidad, ahondada por el dolor, que escribe para desentrañar las relaciones ocultas entre las cosas, para registrar a través de una mirada atenta y solitaria un conmovedor universo poblado lo mismo por una tía que se casa a los 75 años con un muchacho de 30, por una viejita adorable que mata a sus gatos o por objetos aparentemente nimios: el sacacorchos, un teléfono celular, una vieja máquina Olivetti, verdaderos interlocutores de quien se sienta a conversar con el refrigerador sobre “las cosas que deben congelarse / para que el mundo siga”.
