Les lumières de la ville (French Edition) Victoria Charles

Symbole de promiscuité et de désirs solitaires, la ville est une promesse pour tous ceux qui s'y promènent. Ses rues alambiquées, ses quartiers anonymes et ses bruits incessants sont autant de paysages qui attirent l'innocent. Ses lumières qui la voilent, la fardent et la dévoilent, la transforment d'heure en heure, offrant au passant mille et un visages.

Si les lumières matinales tirent la ville de sa torpeur et l'offrent virginale au jour naissant, ses éclairages nocturnes plongent à nouveau le chaland dans l'étrangeté de ses mystères, dont la beauté est tant visuelle qu'éphémère.

Entre l'ombre et la lumière, les photographies inédites de ce très bel ouvrage dévoilent l'arborescence fragile des lumières citadines et nous font redécouvrir l'éternité de ces grandes capitales, aussi sublimes qu'étonnantes.
