Cuando la tierra se vuelve de plata (Nuevos Tiempos) (Spanish Edition) Alison Wong

A comienzos del siglo XX, en Nueva Zelanda, numerosos inmigrantes se establecieron en el bullicioso barrio chino de Wellington, donde los hermanos Yung y Shun se ganan la vida para poder mantener a sus familiares en China. Todos deben adaptarse si quieren sobrevivir y prosperar en su nuevo lugar adoptivo. Mientras, en la otra parte de la ciudad, Katherine McKechnie lucha por criar a sus hijos tras la muerte de su esposo Donald, un estridente periodista ultraconservador, idolatrado por su rebelde hijo adolescente Robbie y que tenía aterrorizada a toda la familia. Cuando Katherine conoce a Yung, se siente conmovida por su generosidad. Pronto inician una relación clandestina que Robbie no puede soportar. En vísperas de la I Guerra Mundial, mientras miles de jóvenes son arrastrados por una oleada de patriotismo, Robbie se apropia del honor de la familia. Y al hacerlo, coloca a su madre en el corazón de una tragedia que afectará a todos y a todo lo que resulta querido para ella...
