500 Freestyle is an almost 1/3 mile swim of endurance and heart. It be great to have your sports hero train you? How about if that sports hero is your own brother?

Bobby Anthony is frustrated because he is an average high school swimmer and his brother, Shawn Anthony is the worlds' best freestyle swimmer and expected to make history and win more than 10 gold medals at the 2008 Olympics.

Shawn's life changes when he and his girlfriend are involved in a traffic accident. Shawn loses his unborn baby, breaks up with the love of his life and is injured enough to prevent him from going to the 2008 Olympics.

With no where else to go, Shawn comes home to the family he lost touch with for the last four years while traveling the world in swimming competition. Will training his younger brother, Bobby, encourage him to get back in the pool once recovered from his injuries for the greatest swimming competition in the world, "The Olympics?"
