When Libby Malone's boss and mentor dies unexpectedly, she must step into his position as interim property manager. For the last two years, she has trained as assistant property manager at Blue Dolphin Condominiums--but does she have the patience and tact to deal with suspicious and critical residents on her own? When Greg Cunningham and his young son take up temporary residence in his mother's condo, a whole new set of challenges confronts Libby. For the property manager, dating a resident is out of the question. But can she withstand the matchmaking schemes of a determined young boy and his grandmother? In Libby's mind, securing her position at Blue Dolphin Condominiums is too important to jeopardize. Will her new friendship with Greg lead to her downfall--or turn out to be the greatest blessing God ever sent her?
