Three Stories Joshua Cook

Three Stories includes the reflections of an increasingly jaded journalist embedded with a well-intentioned presidential candidate with no chances for success in a political system dominated by money and pretty faces; the harrowing tale of a businessman who has a serious accident just before he is to give the most important presentation of his life; and an adventure taking place in a future in which faith and progress are diametrically opposed. Any persons attempting to find any meaning in any of these pieces clearly have too much time on their hands.
