Me, Myself, and I: Youth Meditations for Grades 5-8 Sandra McLeod Humphrey

Being a "tween" can be a very awkward time in anyone's life. You're not a full-fledged teenager with cars, dates, and high school, but you're not a little child anymore, either. You can still feel the pull in both directions--wanting to be a child and have fun, yet wanting more responsibility as a teenager. It's definitely not easy being a "tween."

Me, Myself, and I was written for you--to help guide you through this time of transition through stories and study questions at the end of each chapter. You can read this book privately at home as a personal devotional or in a group setting such as Sunday school, youth Bible studies, or through other Christian-based youth organizations.

The wisdom offered in Me, Myself, and I can make the journey from tween to adult just a little easier with the reassurance that God is present every step of the way.
