The Art of Opera 2016 Calendar

The Art of Opera 2016 Wall Calendar was inspired by the performances and theaters. Born four centuries ago in Italy and initially only for nobility, opera has been as dramatic offstage as on: battles over censorship, theaters twice and thrice burned to the ground, long-sought discoveries, and controversy over its very beginning. This calendar details nearly two hundred milestones in opera's history. The openings of storied theaters and opera companies, first performances of celebrated and influential operas, and birthdates of notable composers, performers, and librettists are included. Features artwork of operas Details nearly 200 milestones in opera's history Previous and next month views Observes major holidays
