JUDAS PRIEST Les défenseurs de la foi (French Edition) Neil Daniels

Pionnier du heavy metal et inventeur de l'uniforme cuir et clous bien connu des fans, Judas Priest a traversé les décennies en faisant peu de concessions. De la première mouture du groupe en 1969 jusqu'à la dernière en date en 2006, le groupe a connu énormément de changements de musiciens, mais cela ne l'a pas empêché de continuer sur sa voie, celle d'un groupe culte qui a écrit des chansons devenues des classiques du genre. Judas Priest, c'est aussi une histoire riche en rebondissements : les tournées américaines à guichets fermés, le procès des messages subliminaux, le rôle controversé du batteur Jonathan Valen sur la tournée « Turbo : Fuel For Life », le départ de Rob Halford, les années quatre-vingt-dix avec Tim « Ripper » Owens au chant et la résurrection du groupe en 2003 avec le retour du grand Rob. À travers de nombreuses interviews de membres passés et présents du groupe, mais aussi de proches collaborateurs, découvrez l'histoire d'un groupe de heavy metal mythique qui est passé de l'obscurité des petits clubs de West Bromwich à la lumière des tournées mondiales dans des stades comme le Maracana de Rio de Janeiro.
