Essential reading for anyone who wants to know what the church's progressive edge is up to. Alternative Worship provides practical tools for nontraditional worshipers during major festivals of the church year—Advent, Christmas, Lent, Easter, and Pentecost. It acts as a "how-to" book for revitalizing worship and renewing imagination and creativity. This forward-thinking book includes " liturgies and rituals " meditations and prayers " music " visuals " creative ideas for improving worship The accompanying CD-ROM offers instant access to the lyrics and music of contemporary worship songs and visual presentations for use with video projectors. It also contains interactive materials to engage pastors, worship leaders, and musicians in "faithful improvisation." Alternative Worship is sure to spark the creativity to develop new voices in postmodern worship.
