Teenagers often feel like they're standing alone-but they aren't. God is on their side, ready to intervene and offer a love-infused helping hand. In the truest sense, teenagers need help-help with their spiritual condition, help resisting temptation, and help interacting with the, um, interesting people in their lives!

This 12-lesson volume of Grapple Jr. High features three series that will spur lively, Jesus-centered conversations in a trio of important areas:

- Understanding Jesus' death and resurrection
- Preparing for the battle against temptation
- Building healthy relationships with difficult people

Through these lessons, students will discover how sin separates us from God, but Jesus offers salvation through his death and resurrection-help for eternity. Jesus is our ultimate champion, giving us strategies and strength to resist Satan's temptation-help in leading God-honoring lives. And teenagers can discover how to successfully interact with the "weirdos" and "wackos" of their world-help in thriving, not just surviving.

Give your students inspiration and insights that will inspire them to seek God as the ultimate source for the help they need in leading vibrant lives of faith!
