Alisha is a young, ambitious and determined career woman. Work is her escape from the demons that haunt her. At home, she is a dutiful, caring and loving wife. She loves her husband but feels no passion for him.

On the inside, she is still the seven-year old girl trying to hide from shame. She is a cloistered nymphomaniac. She feels complete only in the arms of one man, her first and last true love, Kevin.

Kevin is a ruthless, manipulative and ambitious man who is also an adorable, kind and loving husband at home. His only aim in life is to be in a position of power and control.

On the inside, he is a ten-year old boy running away from an incident that scarred him for life. To him, relationships are mere stepping stones to either pleasure or power. Sex is a remorseless addiction he enjoys. Alisha is his drug.

Follow Alisha and Kevin as their passion for each other grows to dizzying heights, wanes and rekindles with even greater vigour. Is their obsession for each other a mere passion or is there more than meets the eye?

Will Alisha leave her career and family to follow her obsession for Kevin? Will Kevin give up his dreams, ambitions and family to follow his passion for Alisha?

Karma is strange and even stranger is love. We are all mere puppets on the strings of Karma and Love. Yet in our pain is our joy and we find peace in our Karmic Ishq.
